

Take off your Hats

Words by

W. J. MILLER

Music by

W. J. HASTINGS

⑤

AUTHOR'S PROPERTY

PUBLISHED BY

THE HAWKES & HARRIS MUSIC CO.

10 SHUTE ST.

OPP. MASSEY HALL

TORONTO

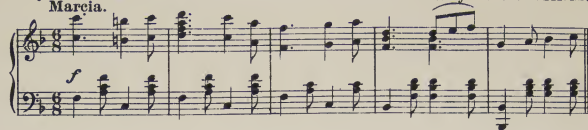

TAKE OFF YOUR HATS TO THE BOYS

3

Words by W. J. MILLER.
Marcia.

Music by W. J. HASTINGS.

Here's to the boys who have They're of En-glish Scotch and The Kai-ser thought he mp

gone to the front, To fight for the King and flag
I - rish race, Some French and some Rus - sian too
had a snap, But of course he did not know

Who will - ing - ly share the bat - tle's brunt, In de -
And when they come the foe to face, They will
That just the Bri - tish flag to slap, Made each fence of the loved old Rag, They are loy - al show what they can do Not while the co - lo - ny his foe But he'll learn be - sons of loy - al sires, Who have nev - er known de - blood flows through their veins, Will they free - dom's cause re - fore the fight is through, That he made a great mis -

feat Whose zeal for vic - to - ry nev - er lent They'll fight for the right while life re - take And what the co - lo - nies can tires Till the vic - to - ry is com - plete.

mains Till all their strength is spent. Then do But he'll learn it just too late.

CHORUS.

p-f

give them a heart - y cheer, And give it with a vim, That the world may know that as they go, They're march-ing to Ber - lin.

Then march-ing to Ber - lin.

2-18-1914